

A Fall Getaway in Lake Red Rock Area

SATURDAY

9 AM – Pleasantville

Coffee + small-town shopping.

10:30 AM – Lake Red Rock

Chase the fall colors and explore the trails.

Noon – Knoxville

Lunch + downtown exploring.

2 PM – Cordova Park

Take the Cordova Conservation Tour and soak up the scenery.

4 PM – Local Wine Tasting

Slow down and enjoy a glass while the leaves put on a show.

6 PM – Pella

Shop, explore, and experience Oktoberfest if you're visiting during the celebration.

Evening – Firepit Time

Head back to your campsite or cabin for one last fall night around the fire.

SUNDAY

Morning – Slow Down

Sleep in, grab breakfast, and enjoy the crisp fall air.

10:30 AM – One Last Adventure

Take a final walk around Lake Red Rock or explore another trail.

Noon – Shop Local

Pick up a few fall finds or local treats before heading home.

SUNDAY

Morning – Slow Down

Sleep in, grab breakfast, and enjoy the crisp fall air.

10:30 AM – One Last Adventure

Take a final walk around Lake Red Rock or explore another trail.

Noon – Shop Local

Pick up a few fall finds or local treats before heading home.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q: When is the best time to see fall colors?

A: The leaves change on their own timeline! In Marion County, you can typically expect fall colors to start showing up in mid-October, but peak color depends on the weather. Keep an eye on our social media pages for seasonal updates, then plan a drive, walk, or photo stop around Lake Red Rock to take in the changing scenery.

Q: What are some affordable ways to enjoy fall in Marion County?

A: You don't need a packed itinerary to make the most of fall! Take a scenic drive around Lake Red Rock, explore local parks and trails, or spend an afternoon browsing the shops and grabbing a bite in downtown Pella or Knoxville. Add a seasonal event or local attraction that catches your eye, and you've got the makings of a fall getaway without spending a fortune.

